Purple Porterweed

Stachytarpheta jamisensis

A must for any butterfly gardener, especially those who don't have a lot of sun! The purple variety has a smaller leaf & produces long spikes with small purple flowers late spring, summer, & fall. This color averages 3'-4' tall & is more of a root hardy perennial than some of the other varieties. Shade or light shade. Moist, well drained soil.

Butterflies!