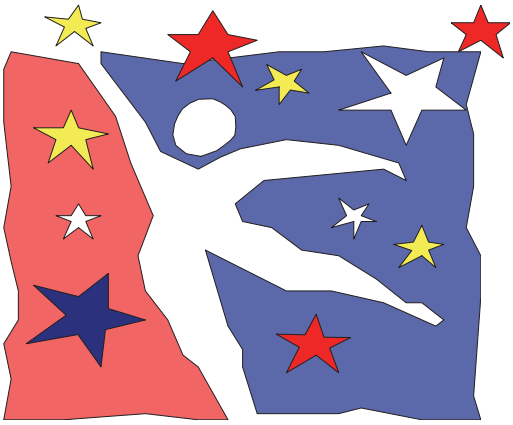
Contra Costa Behavioral Health Services Office for Consumer Empowerment, Mental Health Consumer Concerns, and Contra Costa College proudly announce...

SPIRIT

Service Provider Individualized Recovery Intensive Training

Are you ready…?



for SPIRIT 2013

A comprehensive training and support program for mental health Consumers (people who receive mental health services) who want to work as peer providers in the mental health field.

Classroom instruction with on the job experience through internship with local behavioral health organizations.

We emphasize the development of personal recovery skills, educate consumers on peer support and more!

Application deadline is October 12,2012/ Interviews take place November 2012/ Classes will begin in January 2013

Learn about yourself and your community; change your life!

The JOURNEY STARTS HERE !

For applications and more information please call Jami Tussing (925) 957-5168