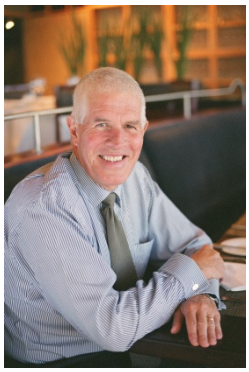
Keynote Address: Peter Oliver of Oliver & Bonacini



Peter Oliver

Peter Oliver, co-founder of Oliver & Bonacini, will share insights on what makes an event – and an events company – successful. He will describe the high standards found in fine dining restaurants and, using examples from his experience, will discuss how these can and should also exist at events, no matter the size or location. Specifically, he will highlight the importance of a strong service team and culture.
Peter opened his first restaurant in 1978 after a successful career in stock brokerage and commercial real estate. He is the passionate leader of O&B's legendary service culture, leading each employee orientation, ensuring that Oliver & Bonacini's vision, values and expectations are clearly communicated. Oliver & Bonacini (O&B) is recognized as one of Canada's leading fine dining restaurant, events and catering companies, operating 12 unique and innovative restaurants in Ontario.
