Sail the Great Lakes

and earn LSSU Credits

Summer 2015

COURSE:

BIOL106
Boat Handling and Navigation.
3 credits (2,3)

DESCRIPTION:
Learn the art of seamanship, including the basics of boating and safety.

Piloting and navigation are emphasized with an understanding of weather, waves, and wind, as well as the use of board electronic equipment.

After 5 days, students will disembark in Charlevoix on June 26.

DATES:
Lecture online beginning 1st summer session. Lab aboard the Inland Seas June 22-26.

COURSE FEE:
$750

Enrollment is limited to 10 students.

FACULTY LEADER:
Dr. Barbara Evans
bevans@lssu.edu

COURSE:

NSCI116
Oceanography
4 credits (3,2)

DESCRIPTION:
Investigate physics, chemistry and biology of the open water on Lake Michigan. After 4 days, students will disembark in Suttons Bay on July 30.

DATES:
The class lecture will be during the 2nd summer session. Lab aboard the Inland Seas, sailing from Suttons Bay July 26-30.

COURSE FEE:
$600

Enrollment is limited to 9 students.

FACULTY LEADER:
Dr. Derek Wright
dwright1@lssu.edu

LAKE SUPERIOR STATE UNIVERSITY