“Hidden in Plain Sight” Ribbon Cutting and Open House

Tuesday, September 1, 2015, 10:30 a.m. – noon
Hanover Mall (Sears wing), 1775 Washington St., Hanover

Ribbon Cutting: 10:30-11 a.m. ♦ Open House: 11 a.m. - noon

South Shore Hospital's Youth Health Connection and South Shore Visiting Nurse Association invite you to a ribbon-cutting and tour of "Hidden in Plain Sight," an initiative that teaches parents signs of hidden substance abuse. Open to adults only, the program uses a recreated bedroom of a typical teenager to test parents' knowledge of common items that can be substance abuse warnings.

Light refreshments will be served.
