

High Holidays 101

Find the High Holidays' relevance and meaning for your life.

Alternate Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur Services

Searching for the practical relevance to the High Holidays?

Rabbi Mendy Kornfeld, a Seattle native and Shevet Achim's Education Director, leads the program. Passionate about Jewish education and outreach, Mendy will guide you through the synagogue experience. For more information and to RSVP email: education@shevetachim.com

Rosh Hashana, Monday, September 14th

Alternate service 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.
Shofar blowing at 11:00 a.m.

Yom Kippur, Wednesday, September 23rd

Alternate service #1 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.
Yizkor – memorial service at 11:00 a.m.
Alternate service #2 12:30 – 1:30 p.m.

Open to all. Admission is free.

Alternate services held in Shevet Achim's light-filled social hall. Regular services held in the main sanctuary.

Congregation Shevet Achim

8685 S.E. 47th Street, Mercer Island, WA 98040
www.shevetachim.com

Wondering what Judaism's holiest days are all about?