MAGNIFYING THE MATCHUP

The Jackals Thanksgiving holiday will be sandwiched around a home-and-home set with the Adirondack Thunder. Tonight, the Jackals will pay their first ever visit to the Glens Falls Civic Center and put their three-game winning streak on the line against the East Division-leading Thunder. Elmira and Adirondack met once previously this season on Opening Night as their rivalry, stretching back to the United Hockey League days, was renewed. The Thunder struck first and capitalized twice on the power-play, eventually stretching their lead to four before Scott Jacklin scored his first professional goal in the third period. Chris Langkow and Mike Seidel also recorded a point in the 4-1 loss. Tonight's matchup marks the second of 11 meetings this season and the first of five in Glens Falls.

FAST FACTS

· Cason Hohmann is tied for third among rookies with 14 points (six goals, eight assists).

· Scott Jacklin leads all rookies in shooting percentage at 30.8% (four-for-13).

· Spiro Goulakos is tied for first among rookies with three power-play goals and is tied for second with five power-play points. He also is tied for second among rookie defensemen with 10 points (three goals, seven assists).

· Elmira has the third-best road power-play at 24.2% (8-for-33).

· The Jackals are 7-0-0 when leading after two periods and are 5-0-0 in one-goal games.
