2015-16 Florida Everblades Bios

Craig Brush - President & General Manager

Brush, along with partners Peter Karmanos and Thomas Thewes, founded the Everblades and Germain Arena in 1998. Brush, a native of Milton, Ontario, oversees all aspects of both the hockey club and the sports complex.

In 17 seasons, the Everblades have hosted more than 3.6 million fans in over 600 regular season games, with an average of 6,381 per game. The team has placed in the top three of league attendance in ten of its 17 seasons, ranking first overall five times, and have led the Kelly Cup Playoffs attendance six times. The Everblades have also earned a post-season berth in 16 of their 17 season seasons of existence. Brush was inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame (Class of 2016), on Feb. 5, 2016 in a ceremony in Kalamazoo.

The Everblades won the Kelly Cup and the ECHL Championship in 2012, and have reigned as conference champions three times. During the 2003-04 season, the Everblades captured the Eastern Conference title and made their first ever trip to the Kelly Cup Finals, and followed that up by becoming the first team in ECHL history to make back-to-back trips to the Kelly Cup Finals after capturing the 2004-05 American Conference Championship. Florida was also awarded the regular season championship and the Brabham Cup following the 1998-99 season when they finished with a club record 108 points.

Brush played hockey for four seasons at Cornell University where he was a member of the 1970 undefeated NCAA Championship team, which was the only team in collegiate history to accomplish this feat. From 2003-2006, Brush served as the Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors. In addition, he has coached in the Compuware youth hockey program for many years.

Greg Poss – Head Coach

Poss, 50, enters his sixth season behind the bench for the Everblades. On June 23, 2010 he became just the fourth head coach in club history. The Green Bay, Wisconsin native led the Everblades to their first Kelly Cup title in 2012. Poss joined the Everblades organization with an extensive coaching resume. During his four seasons with the Everblades, Poss has posted an ECHL coaching record of 231-134-39, along with a 23-12 postseason mark. He recorded his 200th ECHL win on April 10 vs. Orlando.

Prior to Florida, Poss spent the 2009-10 season in the ECHL as an assistant coach with the Ontario Reign. He spent eight seasons as a head coach in the German Elite League (DEL) with Iserlohn, Nuremberg and Mannheim. In 2006-07 helped Mannheim become the first team in DEL history to finish in first place in the regular season, win the inter-league tournament and capture the league championship in the same year after leading the club to a 35-9-8 record. Poss' coaching resume also includes national team experience.

In 2009, he was an assistant coach with the USA Hockey team finished second in the Deutschland Cup. In 2004 and 2005 Poss was the head coach of the German Senior National Teams that participated in the Deutschland Cup and 2005 World Championships. His international coaching experience began in 2003 as an assistant coach of the USA Hockey team that finished first in the Deutschland Cup then followed that in 2004 as an assistant coach of the USA Hockey team that won bronze in the World Championships in Prague.

As a player Poss played on the professional level for three seasons in the American Hockey League and International Hockey League. In two years from 1989-91 with the Maine Mariners of the AHL Poss tallied 44 points (17g, 27a) and 103 penalty minutes in 109 games. In 1991-92 Poss skated in just 18 games with the Peoria Rivermen of the IHL tallying five points (1g, 4a) and 41 PIM before suffering a career-ending knee injury. Before advancing to the professional ranks Poss played four seasons at the University of Wisconsin from 1985-1989 where he posted 25 points in 101 games.

Poss was named the head coach for the 2015 ECHL All-Star game played in Orlando on 1/21/15.

Tad O' Had – Assistant Coach

O'Had enters his third season with the Everblades after being named Assistant Coach in August of 2013. Previously, O'Had served as head coach and general manager of the Florida Jr. Blades for three seasons. Under O'Had, the Jr. Blades made two appearances at USA Hockey Nationals and captured a pair of regular season league titles. His total record behind the bench for the Jr. Blades was 112-19-8.

To call the Yakima, Washington native seasoned is very much an understatement. While pursuing a higher education, O'Had attended Connecticut College in New London, CT where he was named captain for three out of his four years at the school. He became one of the founders of Blue Streak Sports Training, deemed to be one of most prestigious sports training facilities in the U.S. Also, O'Had continued on to be the co-founder for Hybrid Hockey, a recruitment and exposure service that prepares players who are looking to expose themselves at the collegiate level. In 2009 Tad was granted the opportunity to work in Russia with their Olympic development program where he co-founded several training programs.

For the past five years, O'Had has served as the Vice President of Hockey for Athletic Republic. He is also a certified level III trainer for Athletic Republic, along with being a Sports Potential, Sport-Quest and SPARQ trainer. Tad was awarded with the Dick Vraa Award for his contribution to the Athletic Republic Network. He has achieved decades of awards and achievements in just a few years and his hard work and dedication has led him to direct teams and hockey schools in Ontario, Alberta, Minnesota, Michigan, New York and Connecticut. In the past four years, 12 players he has trained have been selected in the NHL Entry Draft.

Chris Emrick – Head Athletic Trainer

Chris Emrick enters his second season as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Everblades. Chris has 13 years of Athletic Training experience. He joined the 'Blades in 2014 after spending a year with ACO Med Supply and Global Inc. Chris spent four years as an athletic trainer for the Department of Orthopedic Surgery and Sports Medicine at the University of South Carolina from 2008-2012. In addition, he served in a similar capacity at St. Vincent Sports Medicine in Indianapolis from 2006-2008. The Lebanon, Indiana native earned a Master of Science in Sports Medicine at Saint Cloud State University, while earning a bachelor's of Arts degree in Athletic Training from Purdue University. Chris has been active in many sporting events, serving as an athletic trainer for University of South Carolina Football, Purdue University Athletics, USA Hockey, Big Ten Wrestling, NCAA, and USA Track & Field Championships.

Henning Aagaard-Svendsen – Head Equipment Manager

Henning Aagaard-Svendsen enters his second season as the Head Equipment Manager of the Florida Everblades, and has more than 13 years of experience. Henning has spent four seasons (2010-2014) as the Head Equipment Manager of the Toronto Marlies of the American Hockey League. Prior to his time in Toronto, he served in a similar role with the Portland Pirates (AHL) from 2008-2010. In addition, Henning served as an assistant equipment for the Marlies from 2006-2008, and had a three-year stint as an assistant in the NHL with the Atlanta Thrashers from 2003-2006. The Toronto, Ontario native began his career at the collegiate level, serving as the head equipment manager for the Men's and Women's Ice Hockey programs at Elmira College. Henning has served as the AHL representative for the Society of Professional Hockey Equipment Managers (SPHEM). An avid golfer, Henning, has experience as a golf professional.
