

Norfolk Admirals 2014-15 Bios

Eric Veilleux – Head Coach

The 2015-16 season will be the second for Eric Veilleux with the Norfolk Admirals, but his first as head coach. Veilleux was named to his current position during the summer after coaching in an assistant capacity in 2014-15. Before joining the Admirals, Veilleux coached nearly nine full seasons as a head coach in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League (QMJHL), beginning his career in 2005-06 when he replaced Denis Francoeur of the Shawinigan Cataractes.

In each of the following six seasons, Veilleux helmed the Cataractes to the playoffs, reaching the finals once in that span. In the 2012 Memorial Cup, his team finished third in round robin play before winning three consecutive games, including a 2-1 victory in overtime, which clinched the franchise's first Memorial Cup.

Following the 2011-12 campaign, Veilleux moved on to a fellow QMJHL team, the Baie-Comeau Drakkar, and led the team to consecutive President's Cup Finals. For his efforts, Veilleux was awarded the QMJHL and CHL Coach of the Year in his final season (2013-14), wrapping up his junior hockey coaching career with a combined record of 410-297 and a win percentage of .580.

Prior to coaching, the Montreal native skated for the Laval Voisins from 1991-93, and put up 145 points in 83 games over the course of the 1992-93 regular season and playoffs. He advanced to professional hockey the following year, prospering in an eight-year career that included seven seasons in the AHL, a nine-game stint in Sweden, and the 1999-2000 season in the International Hockey League.

It will be Veilleux's first year in the Edmonton organization, and he will be assisted by Ben Boudreau who enters his second season as a coach in the Oilers' system.

Ben Boudreau – Assistant Coach

Boudreau stays in the Oilers' system with Edmonton's ECHL affiliate for the second year in a row, his fourth year coaching overall. Like his father and current Anaheim Ducks head coach, Bruce, Boudreau initiated his professional coaching career last season with an assignment as assistant coach in a developmental league, getting his start alongside head coach J.F. Houle in Bakersfield.

Prior to stepping behind the bench, the 30-year-old St. Catharines, Ontario local played minor league hockey in North America for parts of three seasons from 2009-12 in the IHL, ECHL, CHL and SPHL as a 5-foot-10 and 170-pound center. Boudreau concluded his playing career in France the following season before returning home to coach.

Since 1999, he's been very involved in youth instruction at a few different schools and academies, and continues in that role during offseasons. As the head instructor of the Golden Horseshoe Hockey School in his hometown, Boudreau leads skill development workshops, instruction and team-building for a 16th straight year. In 2011-12, he also served as an assistant coach for the Okanagan Hockey Academy in Penticton, British Columbia, then operated in the same capacity with the Pursuit of Excellence Hockey Academy in Kelowna the past two years.

Tim Abbott – Equipment Manager

Abbott brings over 27 years of experience at the major professional sports level to Norfolk.

He served as an associate equipment manager with the NHL's Detroit Red Wings from 1992-2005 when the club won three Stanley Cups. After leaving the Red Wings in 2005, the Chesterfield, Michigan native spent time with the Port Huron Flags of the United Hockey League (UHL), various indoor football league franchises where he was a part of three more championships, and most recently, two seasons with the Port Huron Fighting Falcons of the North American Hockey League (NAHL).

Prior to joining the NHL's Red Wings, he was the head equipment manager of the then AHL Adirondack Red Wings from 1987-1992, and was a member of two Calder Cup Championship teams.

Vince Fedorowich – Athletic Trainer

Fedorowich, MSed, ATC, LAT, joins the Admirals as head athletic trainer.

Fedorowich's previous stops include Bakersfield (ECHL), Abbotsford (AHL), Arizona (CHL), Quad City (CHL), in minor league baseball with the Greenville Drive, and a short time with the Admirals as an assistant to the training staff while earning a masters degree at Old Dominion University.

He was named the CHL's Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2013 and was runner-up for the same award in 2012. He graduated from Graceland University (Iowa) in 2006 and received a Masters of Science in Education degree from Old Dominion University in 2009.

Ryan Anderson – Video Coach

Anderson hails from Kingsford, Michigan but has called Virginia Beach home since 2005 as a member of the U.S. Navy. For the past six seasons, Anderson was a head coach in the Hampton Roads Whalers Youth Travel Program where he won two Chesapeake Bay Hockey League championships at the U-16 and Pee Wee levels. He also works as a government contractor.

Mark Cinq-Mars – Strength and Conditioning Coach

Cinq-Mars enters his 15th season with the Admirals, part of his second stint with the team. He had spent nine seasons with the Admirals from 1997-98 until 2006-07 as Strength and Conditioning Coach, and then returned in the same capacity beginning in 2010-11. During his hiatus from the Admirals, Cinq-Mars operated his own business, "Pro Fitness Training," in Virginia Beach. He is a Maine native and attended college at the University of Rhode Island. Cinq-Mars, who has now lived in Virginia Beach for over 20 years, attended graduate school at Regent University.

Jon Vaillancourt – Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Vaillancourt will be making his first appearance as a strength coach for the Norfolk Admirals this season in 2015-16. He hails from La Valle, Wisconsin where he played Midget Major AAA under coach Bob Suter. He is also an assistant coach for the Hampton Roads Junior Whalers Elite USPHL team based out of Chilled Ponds in Chesapeake, VA. He has been part of the Hampton Roads Junior Whalers since 2012 as he enters his third season with the Junior Whalers program.

As part of the Hampton Roads program, he has taken part in recruiting future professional and college players and has helped move players on to the ACHA DI and NCAA DIII level of college hockey. He is also responsible along with the Hampton Roads staff for planning all on-ice and off-ice training sessions.

Before joining the Admirals, Jon played for the Hampton Roads Jr. Whalers during their inaugural season in 2006. The team ended their season undefeated, capturing the CHA championship. He played on the Hampton Roads Junior Whalers Jr. A team for the 2007-08 season, a powerful season that culminated in the team winning the Gardner Cup with an overall record of 43-19-4. With a call coming from Framingham State University (DIII), Jon moved to the collegiate level before he attended the Elmira Jackals' (ECHL) rookie placement camp in 2012. He was subsequently selected to attend the Jackals' main camp/preseason roster before ultimately deciding to play for Williamsport in the FHL. He returned to Hampton Roads to pursue coaching, and in his first two seasons with the Hampton Roads Junior Whalers program, he helped lead his junior team to two playoff finishes. Besides working as a coach for the Hampton Roads Whalers, he is also a founder and partner of 1 Mission Fitness LLC.
