BIO: Gillies joins the Stingrays and brings toughness and NHL experience to South Carolina. The veteran has appeared in 57 career NHL games, accumulating 261 penalty minutes. After making his NHL debut with Anaheim during the 2005-2006 season, Gillies spent parts of three years with the New York Islanders from 2009-2012. During the 2010-2011 season, Gillies skated in 39 games for the Islanders, scoring two goals and adding 165 penalty minutes. He spent last season with the Adirondack Flames of the American Hockey League (AHL), scoring one goal and adding 45 penalty minutes in 20 games. No stranger to the ECHL, Gillies began his professional hockey career with the Mississippi Sea Wolves in 1999. He has skated in 122 career ECHL games.

2015-2016 NOTES: Currently on Injured Reserve with Upper Body Injury.
