Weekly Notes

- ❖ This past week, the Royals closed out the season-long seven game road trip with a 6-3 win at The Scope in Norfolk, Virginia, over the Norfolk Admirals on Wednesday (December 16). The Royals then returned to Santander Arena for the only two home games in the month of December, losing to the Elmira Jackals on Friday (December 18), 5-2, and bouncing back to beat the Jackals on Saturday (December 19), 2-0.
- ❖ The 6-3 win in Norfolk on Wednesday stretched the Royals' unbeaten streak to four (2-0-1-1). That win also completed Reading's seven game road trip with a 3-2-1-1 record. Although the Royal's unbeaten streak was snapped with Friday's 5-2 loss to Elmira, after Saturday's win, the Royals have gained at least a point in five of the last six games (3-1-1-1).
- ❖ Overall, the Royals record is at two games over .500 (13-11-1-2=29), which places the team in fourth place in the East Division and tied for ninth place (with the Greenville Swamp Rabbits) in the Eastern Conference.
- ❖ Wednesday's 6-3 win over the Norfolk Admirals marked the first trip in team history for the Royals to The Scope in Norfolk, Virginia. That victory pushed Reading's record to 3-0-0-0 against Norfolk with six more regular season games to be played between the two teams.
- ❖ Reading and Norfolk were tied at three entering the third period of Wednesday's game, and the Royals rang off three unanswered goals to notch the 6-3 win. Reading has a 2-1-0-0 record when entering the third period tied with the opposition.
- ❖ The Royals are outscoring the opposition 32-16 in the third period of play for a league-leading plus-16 (+16) goal differential in the final frame.
- ❖ Wednesday's game marked the third time this year that Reading has scored six or more goals—and the first time since an 8-3 win over the Elmira Jackals on October 28, a span of nineteen games.
- ❖ Friday's 5-2 loss to Elmira marked the third consecutive loss for Reading to the Jackals and dropped the Royals' record to 1-3-0-0 on home ice against the Jackals. The bounce back 2-0 win over Elmira on Saturday pushed the Reading's overall record to 3-4-0-0 against the Jackals with five games to go (including the team's next game on Saturday, December 26) in the twelve game regular season series.
- ❖ Reading scored first in Friday's 5-2 loss to the Jackals. That marked the sixth 'blown loss' for Reading this season—and the third consecutive game against the Jackals in which the Royals held a lead at one point in the contest but were unable to maintain that lead and claim the two points.
- ❖ The Royals have scored the game's first goal sixteen times this season and have compiled a record of 10-4-0-2 in those games.
- ❖ Friday's game marked the seventh time this year that Reading has allowed five goals or more (0-7-0-0).
- ❖ Reading held the Jackals to just twenty-three shots in Friday's game. That marked the fifth time in the first six games against the Jackals in which the Royals held Elmira under 25 shots. In fact, through Friday's game, Reading had allowed just 129 total shots to Elmira (an average of 21.5 shots per game). In that time span, Reading had given up 26 goals to Elmira, which translates into a .798 save percentage for the Royals against Elmira through Friday's game.
- ❖ On average, the Royals allow 26.70 shots per game, which is fifth best in the league.
- ❖ In Friday's game, the Royals were missing seven of the team's top ten scorers from the lineup: Mike Pereira (injury), Justin Crandall (injury), Cam Reid (loan to Utica Comets, AHL), Kevin Young (injury), Riley Armstrong (injury), Joe Rehkamp (loan to Lehigh Valley Phantoms, AHL), and Maxim Lamarche (recall to Lehigh Valley).
- ❖ On Saturday, the Royals and goaltender Adam Morrison blanked the Jackals, 2-0. That was the fourth shutout of the year for the Royals—and the second for Morrison, who has won two games for Reading (2-3-1-1)—both by shutout. The four shutouts for the Royals so far this season have come against four different teams : (i) South Carolina (6-0, 10-18-15); (ii) Greenville (5-0, 11-18-15); (iii) Manchester (3-0, 12-05-18); and (iv) Elmira (2-0, 12-19-15).

- ❖ Overall, Reading has allowed seventy-five goals against in twenty-seven games played for a 2.78 team goals against average (tenth best out of the twenty-eight teams in the league).
- ❖ Saturday's game marked the seventh time in the last nine games in which the Royals scored exactly two goals. Reading has scored 84 total goals this season, which translates into a 3.11 goals per game average (tied with Elmira for eighth best).
- ❖ Reading scored the team's game winner on Saturday (i.e. the first goal of the game, 6:36 into the first period) while playing with the man advantage. Since scoring a season-high three power play goals in a 3-0 win over the Manchester Monarchs on December 5, the Royals power play has gone 3 for 29 over the past seven games (10.3%).
- ❖ Overall, the Royals' power play has gone 22 for 116, which is a 19.0% scoring ratio (tied for twelfth in the league).
- ❖ Reading killed off the one power play chance awarded to the Admirals in Norfolk last Wednesday. The Royals are killing penalties at a 90.9% clip on the road (second best in the league).
- ❖ After giving up a late game power play goal against to the Jackals on Friday, the Royals killed off all four power play chances awarded to Elmira on Saturday, marking the sixteenth time this year that Reading has held the opposition's power play off the board. Overall, Reading is killing penalties at a 86.0% clip (sixth best in the league).
- ❖ Mike Pereira registered his fourth multi-point performance of the season (1g-1a) in Wednesday's win in Norfolk. He scored his thirteenth goal of the year in that game, which is tied for the team lead (with Robbie Czarnik) and is tied for fifth best in the league. Pereira has scored eight goals in his last twelve games. His twenty-four points (13g-11a) is tied for the team lead with Justin Crandall and Adam Comrie (tied for sixteenth best in the league). Pereira leads the Royals in plus-minus at plus-13 (+13). Pereira missed the two games this weekend against the Jackals due to injury.
- ❖ Justin Crandall returned to the Royals lineup in Saturday's 2-0 win over Elmira after a three game absence due to injury. Crandall's twenty-four points (7g-17a) in twenty-one games is tied for the team lead (with Mike Pereira and Adam Comrie), which places him tied for sixteenth in league scoring—and fourth best amongst rookies in the league.
- ❖ Adam Comrie racked up back-to-back multi-point performances against the Jackals on Friday (1g-1a) and Saturday (0g-2a). Comrie leads the Royals with eight multi-point games this season. His goal on Friday was his tenth of the year, which leads all defensemen in the league. His twenty-four points (10g-14a) also leads all d-men in the ECHL. Comrie's four power play goals and twelve power play points is also tied for the league lead amongst defensemen. His seventy-eight shots on goal is tied for second most amongst d-men in the league.
- ❖ Robbie Czarnik registered his first multi-goal (and fifth multi-point) game of the year (2g-0a) in Wednesday's 6-3 win in Norfolk. He also scored a late-game insurance empty-netter on Saturday against the Jackals. Czarnik, who has five goals in his last seven games, is tied with Mike Pereira for the team lead with thirteen goals—which is tied fifth in the ECHL. Czarnik leads the Royals with 94 shots on goal, which is tied for fifth most in the league.
- ❖ Yannick Tifu stitched together a five game point streak (1g-4a) through Friday's loss to the Jackals. Tifu, who has eleven points (4g-7a) in twenty games with Reading this season, has racked up 190 career points (70g-120a) in 204 total games with the Royals. He is eleven points short of tying Olivier Labelle as the second leading scorer in team history.
- ❖ Ian Watters snapped an eighteen game goal scoring drought when he scored the game winner in Wednesday's 6-3 win in Norfolk. Watters also scored the game's first goal—which also proved to be the game winner—in Saturday's 2-0 win over Elmira. That was Watters' first power play goal of the season.
- ❖ Pavel Padakin, who scored the first goal of the game on Friday while the Royals were on the power play, racked up three consecutive multi-point games (1g-5a) starting last Saturday in Florida and continuing through Friday's game against the Jackals (1g-1a).
- ❖ Mike Marcou returned to North America from Austria, signed an AHL deal with the Philadelphia Flyers, and was loaned to Reading (from Lehigh Valley) on Thursday. He promptly picked up a power play assist on the Royals' first goal in Friday's game; and also picked up a helper on the power play game winner (by Ian Watters) on Saturday. Marcou generated seven shots on goal in Saturday's win for Reading.

- ❖ Derek Mathers fought in all three games played this past week and currently leads the ECHL with ten fighting majors. Mathers also picked up his first point of the year (og-1a) in Wednesday's win over Norfolk.
- ❖ Goaltender Connor Knapp made twenty-four saves to record his seventh win of the year and extend his personal unbeaten streak to three (2-0-0-1) in the 6-3 win over Norfolk on Wednesday. Knapp turned out to be the hard-luck loser in Friday's game when he came on in substitution of starter, Martin Ouellette, 10:10 into the second period. Knapp faced only two shots in 9:02 of game time, but one of those shots scored and proved to be the game winner for Elmira, which saddled Knapp with the loss. Knapp left Friday's game due to an injury sustained late in the second period when a teammate collided with him. Overall this season, Knapp has compiled a record of 7-6-0-1 with the Royals with a 2.85 goals against average and a .901 save percentage (and one shutout).
- ❖ Goaltender Martin Ouellette played his first game for the Royals since November 15 on Friday night. Ouellette started that game and played until the 10:10 mark of the second period when he was pulled in favor of Connor Knapp after giving up the second goal of the game. Ouellette came back into that game late in the second period, when Knapp was injured in a collision with a teammate. Ouellette, who got touched up for one goal in the third period, made seventeen saves on twenty shots in 50:46 of game time on Friday; but he was not the goaltender of decision in this game. Overall, in seven games with the Royals, Ouellette has compiled a 4-2-0-0 record with a 2.30 goals against average and a .892 save percentage.
- ❖ Goaltender Adam Morrison made all thirty-three saves he was called upon to make in the 2-0 shutout win over the Elmira Jackals on Saturday. That was Morrison's second shutout of the year and his sixth shutout as a pro. In seven games with the Royals, Morrison has compiled a record of 2-3-1-1 with a 2.28 goals against average and a .919 save percentage. In twelve total ECHL games this year, Morrison has gone 4-5-1-1 with a 2.81 GAA and .903 save percentage.
- ❖ Larry Courville is on pace to become the fifteenth coach in ECHL history to coach his 500th game on Monday, December 28, when the Royals' face the Brampton Beast in Brampton, Ontario. Courville won his 282nd game for the Royals on Saturday (282-172-20-23) to take over sole possession of tenth place on the all-time coaching victory list.

HEAD COACH LARRY COURVILLE

Position: Head Coach and Director of Hockey Operations

Age: 40 (04-02-75)

Home Town: Timmins, Ontario; Resides: Palmyra, Pennsylvania

2015-16 is Larry Courville's seventh full season as the head coach and director of hockey operations for the Royals—and his eighth year leading the team, as he took over the reigns mid-season in 2008-09 (January 6, 2009). Over his first six full seasons as the Royals' coach, Courville, who is currently the longest tenured active coach with the same team in the ECHL, has won more regular season games than any other coach in the league during that time span. The 269 wins he has compiled in that time span places him thirteenth in all-time regular season ECHL wins among coaches. His 470 regular season games coached is sixteenth most in league history. However, only four coaches have coached more regular season games than Larry Courville and compiled a higher win percentage (.615) (Davis Payne: .654; Malcolm Cameron, .631; Jason Christie, .616; and Gerry Flemming, .616). Only ten coaches in the history of the ECHL have won more playoff games than Courville (35).

Last season, Courville led the Royals to his third consecutive season of 45 wins or more—and the fourth time in the last five years in which the team has won more than 40. Last year's team established a new team record for wins on the road (24) and fewest road losses (8). In fact, Courville's teams have won 20 or more on the road for five consecutive years, compiling an overall road record during that time span of 109-54-17, which translates into a .653 win percentage. (Overall, Courville is 138-81-17=.621 on home ice; and 130-80-23=.609 on the road.)

Courville is the all-time team leader in games coached (470), wins (269), and win percentage (.615, which is tied with Derek Clancey: 2003-05). Courville's most notable season with Reading to date may be 2012-13 when he and his players not only established the team record for most wins (46) (tied in 2013-14), but also set team records for fewest losses (19), most points in the standings (99), and highest win percentage (.688). That team, of course, advanced to win the Kelly Cup Championship.

Courville, who has led the Royals to the playoffs in all six of his full seasons as the team's head coach, is tenth all-time in league history with 63 post-season games coached. His 35 playoff wins is eleventh all-time.

Courville is the sixth coach in the twelve year history of the team. He took the head coaching reigns of the Royals mid-way in the 2008-09 season, on January 6, 2009, when the team had a record of 9-23-2. In the final 38 games of that regular season, the Courville-led Royals went 15-19-4. Since that time Courville's teams have collectively gone 108 games over .500 (254-142-36), which translates into a .630 win percentage. During that time span, the Royals have won two regular season conference titles (2012-13 and 2013-14) and three regular season division titles (2010-11, 2012-13, and 2013-14).

This stint with the Royals is the first pro head coaching assignment for Courville, who served as the general manager, facility director, and hockey operations supervisor of a Lancaster, Pennsylvania, ice rink for over two years after completing his final full season as a player in 2006.

With respect to his playing career, Courville, a third round pick of the Vancouver Canucks in 1995, played in more than 600 pro hockey games, including 33 in the National Hockey League with the Canucks. During his playing career, Courville, who served as team captain during no fewer than six of his nine full-time playing seasons, racked up over three hundred points and a thousand penalty minutes. He was named as the team's Most Valuable Player for the Syracuse Crunch of the American Hockey League in 1996-97. Prior to turning pro, Courville, who originally hails from Timmins, Ontario, was twice a member of Team Canada Gold Medal championship teams in international play, including the 1995 World Junior U-20 Championship, during which he played an integral role on his home country's team that went undefeated during the world's premiere amateur tournament.

Courville played all or parts of five different seasons with the Royals, starting with a short stint during the team's inaugural year (2001-02) and culminating with ten games played on an 'as-needed' basis during the 2007-08 season. In addition to earning the respect of his teammates and the admiration of the fans in Reading for his gritty and relentless style of play, Courville also received the Royals' Unsung Hero Award at the conclusion of the 2004-05 season and the team's Heart Award in 2005-06. On October 22, 2006, Courville became the first person ever inducted into the Reading Eagle Wall of Honor at the Sovereign Center, which honors members of the Royals' organization who have made significant contributions to the success of the team. Perhaps not surprisingly, on the day that he was inducted into the Wall of Honor, Courville dressed for an undermanned Royals' team and played an instrumental part in the 5-3 victory over the Pensacola Ice Pilots. His efforts that day included scoring a late-game goal to ice the team's win. On October 30, 2011, while in his role as the team's head coach, Courville became the first former player in team history to have his number (#22) retired by the team.

Larry and his wife, Shannon, and their two young daughters (MaKenna and Morgan) and young son (Mason), currently reside in Palmyra, Pennsylvania.
