“Turning 22: Preparing for Transition” a pivotal time in the life of an adult with disabilities requires many choices to consider and decisions to be made. Long before turning 22 it is important to become familiar with options surrounding guardianship, living arrangements, day programs and flexible supports. This group is for parents of young people ages 16+ and will be geared to your needs. Facilitated by Kathy Dunn, a parent who has been through the process with her own adult child.

Kathy Dunn is a former Guidance Counselor at Duxbury High and Counselor at South Bay Mental Health. She serves on the DDS CAB and League of Women Voters.
