Northern Arizona Regional Behavioral Health Authority (NARBHA) is the Regional Behavioral Health Authority for Coconino, Navajo, Yavapai, Apache and Mohave counties (the northern geographic service area (GSA). Starting October 1, 2015, NARBHA will become Health Choice Integrated Care (HCIC), and Gila County and parts of Graham County will be added to the northern GSA. Funds for services are provided through a contract with the Arizona Department of Health Services/Division of Behavioral Health Services and AHCCCS.
