How to Accumulate Your Financial Information in One Place for the Benefit of Your Spouse or Executors

If the person in your family who had previously handled the finances died, what would the surviving spouse or executor find? Would they find everything neatly organized or would they have to go through the deceased' desk, unfilled papers, file cabinets, and numerous boxes to at least partially understand the family's finances?

The last 30 minutes of the "Planning Your Funeral Workshop" that was presented by Deacon Kimball Arnold on May 21st was devoted to reviewing a workbook that was assembled by Ron Davis on how you can efficiently organize your and personal and financial matters in one place. Since the feedback from the participants on the entire seminar led by Kimball was so positive, Ron Davis decided to lead another seminar focusing on just the "Workbook to Help You Organize Your Personal and financial Matters".

Please Join Ron Davis, for a 45 minute workshop to discuss and begin the process of leaving a very special gift to your spouse or executor – the gift of organized and complete personal and financial information.

When: Sunday, July 31, 2016 – 15 minutes after 10 AM service

Where: Parish Hall

Please call the church office, 928-778-4499, to register for the workshop so Ron will have an estimate of how many books to prepare.
