

NAMI Annual Conference 2016 in Burlingame California

“Back to the Future: Building on the Past for a Better Tomorrow”

NAMI California is seeking proposals for presentations for our upcoming conference in Burlingame, CA on August 26 through the 27, 2016 on Transitional Aged Youth (T.A.Y.), Criminal Justice, Strengthening NAMI, Consumer and Family Engagement/Recovery Practices and Advocacy.

We highly encourage workshop applications that incorporate and address diverse communities through dynamic strategies and programs including, Multimedia, Education/Training, Personal Stories, and Advocacy.

Available workshop spaces are limited and will be reviewed by the Conference Program Committee. Workshop proposals must be submitted by March 31, 2016 to be considered.

INFORMATION REQUIRED ON ALL SUBMISSIONS:

- Name of each presenter
- Corresponding email of each presenter
- Conference sub-theme to which the workshop relates (Example: Transitional Aged Youth, Law Enforcement, Consumer/Family and NAMI Affiliate Relations)
- Title of workshop
- A 300 word summary of the workshop activities, including any materials that workshop participants will receive.
- Three learning objectives
- Two key references
- Signed agreement of terms (located on page 7)

Applications must contain all required information and be submitted by March 31, 2016 in order to be accepted. Applications not meeting these requirements will not be reviewed.

Audio Visual Needs:

NAMI California provides a screen in each workshop. Presenters must supply their own audio-visual equipment. You may purchase audio-visual rental equipment through the hotel, provided you give them prior notice of your requirements (you will be responsible for any and all charges related to rental equipment at the hotel).

Before submitting your proposal, please read each of the statements below and check the boxes to certify that you understand your responsibilities when submitting a proposal for the NAMI California Conference. Proposals received without this certification will not be reviewed by the NAMI California Conference Committee.

- I understand that all workshop presenters must register for the Conference. Presenters DO NOT receive a complimentary registration. Information on how to register as a presenter will be sent to approved workshop presenters.
- I understand that all workshop presenters are responsible for their own hotel and travel arrangements and expenses.
- I understand that NAMI California reserves the right to edit all information printed about my workshop, including the title.
- I understand that my workshop may not have more than 4 presenters.
- I understand that my workshop needs to include the perspective of a person living with mental illness and/or a family member.
- I understand that any request for a presenter's substitution (replacing one speaker with a different speaker) must be done in writing and requires prior approval from NAMI California. Substitutions without NAMI California's prior approval may result in cancellation of the workshop.
- I understand that workshops must be a true representation of the proposal that was approved by the Conference Committee as well as follow the above statements. NAMI California reserves the right to cancel a workshop that is different from the proposal approved by the Conference Committee.
- As the main presenter of this proposal, I agree to act as the liaison between NAMI California and each of my presenters. This includes relaying all information received from NAMI California regarding our participation in the NAMI California Conference in a timely fashion.
- I understand that NAMI California does not provide or pay for the rental of TVs, DVD Players, or LCD projectors for use during my presentation and it is my responsibility to make arrangements for any additional equipment needs directly with the hotel and I am responsible for any charges incurred.
- I understand that each presenter must provide a brief bio before my workshop can be submitted for approval.

By signing below you are indicating your understanding and agreement to the terms stated on this form and the guidelines above.
