

Regional Town Hall Meeting on Marijuana

There is a lot of talk about marijuana in Rhode Island lately. Are you wondering what the story is? Are you interested in how marijuana and other drugs effect the developing teen brain? Do you want to hear from experts and the youth from our communities? This community event is what will help you learn about all of that and more. Come along and bring a friend.

Thursday, April 7th
6-8pm

Amica Insurance
100 Amica Way
(Bldg. 100)
Lincoln, RI

Our Keynote Speaker will be Lilia Romero-Bosch, MD, an adolescent psychiatrist who treats youth addicted to marijuana. She will share her experiences and some ideas about how parents can best understand this addiction and talk with their children about substance use.

Light Refreshments Provided

Margaret Johnson, MEd, MA, who is a student assistance counselor will also be speaking about what she is seeing in schools and how she talks to the youth about drug use.

The highlight of the evening will be a facilitated focus group with youth from our local communities. Audience members will be able to “listen in” as these kids talk about what is really happening in their high schools. Hear what they see, what they come in contact with and what the current drug culture is in our communities.

Sponsored by the Partnership for Success and Prevention Coalitions of Cumberland, Lincoln, N. Smithfield, Pawtucket, Scituate and Woonsocket
