

CSBC's 2016 Annual Symposium

Yellowknife, Northwest Territories - September 22 - 24, 2016

The Canadian Safe Boating Council, is taking the 2016 Symposium north to Yellowknife. This will provide the opportunity to explore and discuss boating safety issues facing those who live in the real Great White North.

Yellowknife is a unique urban outpost of a town that has all the modern amenities of a large city in the middle of a vast subarctic wilderness. Within minutes you can escape the bustle of "downtown" to be in the midst of nature trails, lakes, and waterfalls where you can experience an abundance of wildlife.

The host hotel will be the Explorer hotel, the largest and one of the best hotels in Yellowknife. Come a little early or stay a little longer and take the time to explore Yellowknife above and beyond the Symposium.

It will be an experience you'll never forget!

"Amid the droning bush planes and picturesque houseboats of Yellowknife's Old Town, it's still possible to detect a palpable frontier spirit. It's as if you're standing on the edge of a large, undiscovered and barely comprehensible wilderness – and you are. Draw a line north from Yellowknife to the Arctic Ocean and you won't cross a single road." – The Lonely Planet
