

Celebrate National Aboriginal History Month With the Museum of Inuit Art

June is National Aboriginal History Month, and June 21 is National Aboriginal Day! To celebrate, the Museum of Inuit Art (located in Queen's Quay Terminal) will be highlighting two special self-guided tours, a new art activity, and film screenings every Sunday for the entire month of June. All activities are FREE with museum admission. Adults $5, seniors/students $3, and children under 12 are FREE (must be accompanied by an adult).

On National Aboriginal Day they will also be hosting a special sunset yoga session. This all-levels class will take place inside the museum, allowing participants the rare opportunity to engage with the museum after hours. There are limited spots available for this session, so be sure to check their website's event page (www.miamuseum.ca/whats-on/mia-events) for more details.