

Wildfoods with Rick Hueston

Saturday
May 30
12 noon to 3 pm

The Wildfoods class covers identifying, harvesting, processing and cooking basics. We will collect Wildfoods plants from around the Jefferson Patterson Park & Museum (JPPM) 560 acres and create 3-4 delicious small tapas

✱ Register: www.primitivecafe.com

(only 15 spaces available)

✱ Cost: $10 per person

(reduced fee for children under 12 accompanied by an adult)

✱ Location: JPPM

Please use back entrance to park. There will be a sign "Wildfoods Workshop" at the back entrance. Follow the road to the parking area for the "Kayak and Canoe Launch." Parking will be to your right.

About the Instructor:

Rick's passion for Wildfoods began when he was young and has continued throughout his life. Rick is currently the Head Forager at Baltimore's Primitive Cafe. The mission of the Primitive Café is to assist you with gaining the knowledge and experience to access the wild ingredients, use tested recipes, and prepare your own amazing wildfood dishes in your own kitchen.
