

Student Health Trust: The Road to Careers in Primary Care Medicine

November 6, 2015
Friday, 3:00 - 6:00 pm

HHS/HRSA/Office of Regional Operations
90 7th Street, San Francisco, CA 94103

Objectives:

- To launch the regional convening of pre-medical and medical students interested in working with underserved and under-represented Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander patients and communities.
- To educate pre-medical and medical students about the link between health and health care disparities, social determinants of health, health policies, and workforce diversity in primary care fields.
- To enable students to engage with primary care physicians from different fields (e.g. internal medicine, pediatrics, family medicine, public health, policy, and other specialty).
- To help students understand what is needed to successfully enter medical school and residency program.
- To enable students to form and learn from a peer-to-peer network.
