We depart from Boston and travel past the prestigious universities, M.I.T. and Harvard located just across the river in Cambridge. We will view the Cambridge Common, where Washington took command of the Continental Army; drive along "Tory Row", past the home of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. Traveling through the historic countryside towns of Belmont and Lexington, we then follow the Route of Paul Revere, as he warned "the British are coming." Stand on the Lexington Green, where Captain Jonathan Parker and 77 Minutemen, stood their ground against 700 of England's finest regulars. In Concord, journey past the homes of Hawthorne, Alcott, and Emerson as we make our way to the Old North Bridge where "the embattled farmers stood and fired the shot heard 'round the world."
