REMINDER – Navajo Rug Show Starts Tomorrow and Our Third Saturday Opening is this Saturday, November 21 – Special Guests November 20 and 21

November 18 – 21 – NAVAJO RUG SHOW with Special Guests November 20 & 21

A grand selection of Navajo weavings including pictorials, vegetal dyed, classic patterns and more will be available from Nov 18–21. Hillary and Kent Morrov of Shiprock, New Mexico, will be special guests Nov. 20 – 21 from 12 noon – 4 p.m. each day. Hillary and Kent work in partnership with many weavers, supplying wool to and gaining feedback on designs and colors from both weavers and their customers/retailers across the country. We are privileged to offer this large selection of weavings for a limited time.

"I am proud to see Native representation done in a respectful and beautiful manner."

Marian Denipah (Navajo-Tewa)

WALRUS TUSK IVORY CARVINGS FROM ALASKA ARE IN

We are so fortunate each year to have such a great variety of carvings, most of them from St. Lawrence Island in Alaska. Every year we receive both classic animals and figures from your favorite carvers, and also new designs and pieces. Otters in different stances, miniature versions of loon and duck species from the Mayac family, and some incredible transformation spirit dancers by Ron Apangalook are among the new arrivals. We will work to add new pieces to our Web store so check our Alaskan Carvings page often!

Our 'third Saturday' opening is Saturday, Nov. 21, and we will be open from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. Come on in, meet and greet Earl Plummer (Navajo) with his latest jewelry, visit with Hillary and Kei Morrow, who are exhibiting the latest from Navajo rug weavers, All see our latest arrivals!

Visit our online store to see our current works online and visit the Shop in person to see our full selection. As always, we are happy to send images or help over the phone.

Thank you for your support of the arts!

Wishing You a Wonderful Thanksgiving.
