

HEARING LOSS?

Our Chapter offers information and better choices!

JOIN US TO LEARN MORE!

The 35-year-old nonprofit Hearing Loss Association of America is now holding free monthly meetings in Asheville! The public is welcome!

WHAT?

“Acoustics and Your Hearing”

Dr. Tracie Rice, Associate Professor of Speech and Hearing, Western Carolina University.

WHEN?

Saturday, May 16, 2015, 10:30 am.

WHERE?

Seymour Auditorium, Care Partners campus (top of the hill--Bldg. 22, at the covered walkway), 68 Sweeten Creek Road, Asheville.

Free Parking! Refreshments!

- 1) Self-Help for people with hearing loss -- education, tips, techniques.
- 2) Access to information -- technology (hearing aids and devices).
- 3) Building community solutions -- helping to inform houses of worship, institutions, government, and business about how all can better address the needs of those with hearing loss.

On the Web at: www.nchearingloss.org/asheville.htm

For more information, please call: Ann Karson, 828-665-8699, or email: hlaa.asheville@gmail.com.