

- All ART bus rides are free if you go to the High Smith Student Center and tell them you are an OLLI member, get your picture taken for your OneCard (UNCA Student ID card).
- Take that card to the campus police, next door to HighSmith, and get the correct year sticker put on the card (this will indicate when your OLLI membership expires).
- When you get on the bus, all you do is show the card.
- The Asheville Transit System has a website with all the routes and schedules.
- Schedules have recently been changed and expanded to Sunday's
- Seniors can buy reduced bus passes, but those cost more ($100 for the year) than OLLI membership ($70 for the year).
- The airport route drops passengers right outside the doors and that is the same place for pickup to head in town.
- You can ride to Black Mt and Warren Wilson on one route.
- There are buses that leave you at the Sherrill Center across from the Reuter Center.
- Google: ART Asheville schedule, for times of buses and maps
