Music of Bach, Bloch, Franck and Duruflé

A fundraiser for the Leadership Program for Musicians

Daniel Stipe is equally at home as a solo recitalist, collaborator and arranger on both the piano and the organ. His broad array of abilities lends a rare depth of understanding and excitement to his music-making. He is a prizewinner in multiple organ-playing competitions, and maintains an active concert schedule, with recent performances in Richmond, Nashville, Chattanooga, Princeton, and New York City.

Daniel serves as Director of Music at Trinity Lutheran Church in Richmond, Virginia.

Upcoming concerts in the Saint Bridget Friends of Music series:
