

CALLED TO SERVE

"Putting Faith Into Action"

Event Dates:

JUNE 12 – JUNE 18

JULY 10 – JULY 16

JULY 31 – AUGUST 6

Hungry Mother Lutheran Retreat Center is excited to announce the offering of three youth servant camps throughout the summer of 2016.

- Enjoy a week stay at our peaceful 58 acre mountain facility with hearty meals and bunk style lodging provided.
- Work sites arranged through the many local agencies serving the needs of people throughout Middle Appalachia.
- Experience the rich heritage of this region while providing much needed assistance to an area mired in economic hardships.
- Share and explore your faith more in depth while joining with others in Christian fellowship and worship.

Hungry Mother Lutheran Retreat Center is now accepting group applications for summer servant camps. Each group should consist of 5-7 youth per adult. If you will only be bringing one group, one adult male and one adult female will be required. Youth must be rising high school age and above.

Capacity of each camp will be maximum 40. Bunkhouse sleeps 20 persons total of both boys and girls. Applications are accepted in the order received.

Fee per person is $250. Some scholarship money may be available.

For more information about us, visit our website at www.hungrymother.org or to request an application, e-mail us at hmlrc@hungrymother.org.