

Journey Reconnecting and

Register
by Oct 2!

Trauma Informed Care Training

Take Time for Kids! Is a three-day curriculum designed to teach providers about serving families affected by trauma, abuse and neglect

STAR PRESENTERS

NANCY FISHER
SKYE BERGER
2013 Journey Fellows

Supported by Children's Bureau and
Indiana Dept. Of Child Services

Training participants will learn about:

- Assessment and Intervention Techniques for families affected by Trauma
- Effects of Trauma on brain development
- The four Tenets of Trauma Informed Care
- Avoiding secondary/vicarious trauma
- Creating Trauma Informed Organizations and Systems

When:
Dec 7-9, 2015
9am-5pm CST

Who: Journey Fellows

Where:
Geminus
Training Center
Merrillville, IN

Cost:
$ 100 (until Oct 2)
Limited to 25 participants

Your $ 100 Registration INCLUDES:

- Three-day training: Take Time For Kids!
- Opportunity for local shopping
- Two nights stay at Best Western, Merrillville
- Opportunity to connect with Journey fellows at 5:01 event on Monday night
- Three lunches during the training provided by State Dept. of Child Services
- Journey dinner on Tuesday night

Participants can earn up to 20 Continuing Education Units (CEU) from NASW for completion of the training.