

Susie's Place Child Advocacy Center is hiring two full-time Child Forensic Interviewers to serve our Avon and Bloomington Child Advocacy Centers. This is a professional position charged with interviewing child victims of alleged crimes and child witnesses to violent crimes in an effort to ensure that children are not further traumatized by the interventions intended to protect them and have access to appropriate services. Bachelor's Degree in social work, criminal justice, education or a related field or a Master's Degree in Social Work or Forensic Science; a minimum of two (2) years of professional experience working with children and families where abuse and violence are identified issues; professional experience in working with the criminal justice or child welfare system; will be trained in a Forensic Interview techniques before the contract period. Full job description is listed on our website at www.susiesplace.org Send cover letter and resume to boardofdirectors@susiesplace.org by October 23, 2015.

Susie's Place Child Advocacy Center is hiring a part-time Child & Family Advocate to serve our Bloomington Child Advocacy Center. The Child & Family Advocate position provides advocacy and support services to meet the needs of children and their non-offending family members in a way that reduces trauma and disruption, and enhances positive outcomes in cases involving allegations of crimes against children. Bachelor's degree in Human Services field plus two (2) years of experience in the field of children services, including sexual abuse and/or victim advocacy; experience with family services that embrace the concept of family-centered and strength-based service provision; knowledge of concepts of child abuse and neglect; experience providing services to culturally diverse communities/families and the ability to be culturally sensitive and appropriate. Full job description is listed on our website at www.susiesplace.org. Send cover letter and resume to boardofdirectors@susiesplace.org by October 23, 2015.