

Hi

This is a marvelous curriculum. My wonderful friend Mark Huffman and I are the trainers. Please share with others who may have interest.

University of Louisville Health Promotion is hosting an Our Whole Lives (OWL) Young Adult facilitator training this summer, and we'd love to include you and your colleagues! This is an opportunity for community members and those who work with young adults to learn useful sex-positive information, AND become effective facilitators in any subject area.

OWL is a comprehensive, inclusive sexuality education that provides accurate, developmentally appropriate information about a range of topics, including relationships, gender identity, sexual orientation, sexual health, and cultural influences on sexuality. Here's the link to the OWL website to learn more: <http://www.uua.org/re/owl>.

Training details:

- When: June 22-24 – Participants must commit to the entire 2.5 day training in order to become certified facilitators.
- Where: Foundation for a Healthy Kentucky located at 1640 Lyndon Farm Ct #100, Louisville, KY 40223.
- Cost: $220 (includes training, meals, OWL Young Adult curriculum, and certification)
