Somewhere near you there is a band of brothers fighting for justice. Seeking to rid the land of evil and return hope to the poorly treated. Armed with whatever comes their way, nothing is as it seems in this Sherwood Forrest, but one thing is for sure, no rogue is safe! Performed by two actors, the play is a clever and quirky take on the well-known legend, set in less of a Sherwood Forest and more of a supermarket store room, an everyday place where a tale can be told and objects can be reinvented. Playful, imaginative and fast paced, all the characters are there, in one way or another, along with a host of cardboard boxes, shopping carts and food . . . Bring your band of merry men and a smidgeon of imagination for an innovative and surprising stage production of the famous tale.
