

Preaching the Lectionary Texts for 2016 at Lutheranch

January 11-13, 2016

"Two Bubbas and a Bible"- This Lenten Workshop is taught by two people who preach to ordinary congregations every week. It is designed for those who preach regularly and it will center on the texts for Lent 2016. We will exegete the texts and explore preaching options. John will lead interactive discussions of the texts and Delmer will help the group explore various options and themes and how to present them in a sermon.
