

Festival of the Week

Savor & Sip, Downtown Depot District, Culpeper, Virginia

A festival for lovers of all things wine, food and art. Discover new favorites in the Virginia wine industry. Find inspiration with seasonal offerings and meet the farmers of the Downtown Farmers Market. Gain insight through an educational program on topics such as the local food movement and the ins and outs of growing grapes in Virginia. Cheer for your favorite server in the Waiters Race!

Create your own picnic lunch with a variety of foods for purchase from area purveyors. Enjoy an afternoon of music by Adwela and The Uprising, Kitty and The Fat Cats and the Will Overman Band. Beer and Cider drinkers are covered too with six Virginia Craft Brews and the Bold Rock Cider tent. FREE activities for children.

Tasting Tickets include general admission, a souvenir wine glass to commemorate your day and free tastings at each of the wineries. Find your favorites, relax and stay a while as wine and lunch will also be available for purchase.

Advance tickets are $15 online at www.savorandsipculpeper.eventbrite.com and at: Vinosity, Randy's Flowers, Oak View National Bank and the Museum of Culpeper History.

Tasting tickets at the gate are $25 (must be 21); $5 for non-tasting. Admission for 12 and under FREE. Family friendly event; no pets and no coolers.
