

8th Annual National Harbor Wine & Food Festival

April 23-24, 2016 | On the Waterfront at National Harbor

A world-class, waterfront, culinary event that brings together world-renowned chefs, artisanal craftsmen and culinary pioneers with thousands of Metro DC foodies. The festival features over 150 different international and local wines, beers and spirits in all-you-care to taste in your souvenir glass.

A variety of great food will be available to taste and to buy from some of the area's hottest restaurants and food trucks. A unique craft beer tasting Bier Garten still give attendees something they don't get at other local festivals, and the Cooking Kitchen will feature hands-on demonstrations and wine pairings.

Local, regional and nationally recognized chefs will be conducting demonstrations and available for meet and greet book signings. The festival will also offer several wine, beer and food tastings and dinner beyond the regular hours.

VIP tickets include a Sunset Champagne Closing Party and Goodie Bags for the first 1000 each day. General Admission hours are 1 pm to 6 pm. VIP noon to 6 pm.

For tickets and information, visit www.wineandfoodnh.com.

