COLLECT FOR THE DAY – THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST, PROPER 7, YEAR B

O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LESSONS FOR THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST, PROPER 7, YEAR B

Job 38:1-11

Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind: “Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me. Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy? Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb?—when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band, and prescribed bounds for it, and set bars and doors, and said, ‘Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stopped?’”

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

2 Corinthians 6:1-13

As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says, “At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you.” See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! We are putting no obstacle in anyone’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see—we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything. We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. In return—I speak as to children—open wide your hearts also.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Mark 4:35-41

On that day, when evening had come, Jesus said to them, “Let us go across to the other side.” And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?” And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Psalm 107:1-3, 23-32

- 1 Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, *
and his mercy endures for ever.
- 2 Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed proclaim *
that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.
- 3 He gathered them out of the lands; *
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.
- 23 Some went down to the sea in ships *
and plied their trade in deep waters;
- 24 They beheld the works of the Lord *
and his wonders in the deep.
- 25 Then he spoke, and a stormy wind arose, *
which tossed high the waves of the sea.
- 26 They mounted up to the heavens and fell back to the depths; *
their hearts melted because of their peril.
- 27 They reeled and staggered like drunkards *
and were at their wits' end.
- 28 Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their distress.
- 29 He stilled the storm to a whisper *
and quieted the waves of the sea.
- 30 Then were they glad because of the calm, *
and he brought them to the harbor they were bound for.
- 31 Let them give thanks to the Lord for his mercy *
and the wonders he does for his children.
- 32 Let them exalt him in the congregation of the people * and praise him in the council of the elders.

Please know that you are invited to participate in all aspects of our worship, most importantly by sharing with us in our common meal at God's Table.

We invite you to continue the journey with us; ask questions, attend our educational offerings, participate in the activities of this community. ## WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME REV. CANON CATHIE CAIMANO

We are delighted to welcome The Rev. Canon Cathie Caimano back to St. Patrick's as our guest preacher this morning. As we are in the midst of the General Convention, and a new Presiding Bishop will be elected next Saturday June 27th, (Bishop Curry being a candidate) Canon Caimano is offering to answer any questions you may have regarding the national church, after both services on Sunday. Please extend a warm St. Patrick's welcome to Canon Caimano.

EXPERIENCING SABBATH

Sabbath shifts our focus to things God wants us to notice. This week's spiritual practice sensitizes us to little gifts of revelation intended specifically for us. Reread this week's quote whenever you need a reminder of why you are keeping Sabbath. Consider listening to the meditative music each time you want to pause and notice what God is doing all around you. Read the Sabbath prayer at the beginning and ending of your Sabbath day. You can still sign up for a weekly email and access all of the Sabbath materials as links in our Weekly Reminders electronic newsletter that goes out every Thursday.

EFM ENROLLMENT UNDERWAY

Lay people face the difficult and often subtle task of interpreting the richness of the church's faith in a complex and confusing world. They need a theological education that supports their faith and also teaches them to express that faith in day-to-day events. As the emphasis on lay ministry has grown, the Education for Ministry program has come to play an important role by providing a platform that develops an informed and knowledgeable laity. Enrollment has begun for the 2015-16 EFM academic year beginning this fall. EFM is a four-year program, meeting on Mondays over 36 weeks. If you have questions, please contact Rick Krudel or any parishioner wearing an EFM nametag.

HONOR CEREMONY FOR EAGLE SCOUT

Our congregation is invited to a Court of Honor ceremony for Caleb Sprinkle to receive his Eagle Scout award at St. Patrick's on Sunday, June 28th at 4:30 pm. There will be a reception after the ceremony with a barbecue dinner. Please RSVP TO Randall Sprinkle at randallsprinkle@windstream.net by June 24th if you can attend.

SOLAS LEIGHIS CONCERT REMINDER - THIS EVENING AT 7 PM

Stephen Bennett will perform at St. Patrick's this evening at 7:00 pm. Stephen is an extraordinary musician, an acknowledged master of the harp guitar, a gifted composer and a performer of astounding sensitivity. For more details, visit our website at www.saint-patricks.org

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR OUR CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

Our Nursery/Children's Chapel at St. Patrick's is in need of volunteers for the summer and fall. Since our attendance drops off in the summer, we are currently taking a break from Children's Chapel over the summer months. We will start back up in late August. In the meantime, the children are gathering to play and have fellowship on the playground (weather permitting) and in the Nursery room so that their parents can attend service. We are in need of two volunteers, in addition to our Children's Ministry Leader (Stacey Fox) every week. Stacey will be out of town on vacation on June 28th and July 19th so those two Sundays three volunteers will be needed. Please look at your schedules to see what weeks you would be available to help out. The sign up genius for volunteers can be found at: www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0e4ea4a823a31-nursery. The link will also be available in the Weekly Reminders.
