

Khila & Jay

Khila Khani, JD 1994, was in a very lively section when she was a 1L, and made friends with many people she stays in touch with to this day. One particular friend, David Schnied, knew someone that would be perfect for her...

Telling Khila's future husband, "She's weird, just like you" David set out to play matchmaker. David asked Khila if she would meet his fraternity brother from SUNY Albany, who was coming to Nova in the fall of 1992.

Jay Auerbach, JD 1995, did not know anyone in South Florida other than his Grandmother in Sunny Isles. Khila agreed to meet him and tell him about law school. For Khila, it was love at first sight, but she decided to be friends first in order to get to know him better. Eventually, he met her parents, who liked him right away. Even her dog approved! They were married in September 1995, three years after they started dating. They now have two beautiful daughters, Khami and Ruby, born exactly five years apart, practice law together at Khani & Auerbach in Hollywood, Florida, and have David and NSU Law to thank for their happily ever after. Scroll down for photos.

