

Sharon & Glenn

Sharon Berger Cooper, JD 1997, began her law school career at St. Thomas Law School. She transferred to Nova in January 1996. She was not happy when Nova told her that her Civil Procedure class, 3 credits at St. Thomas, was insufficient to comply with Nova's requirements and she had to retake the class. She begged the Dean to make an exception, to no avail. So there she sat in Professor Michael Dale's Civil Procedure class when she met Glenn M. Cooper, JD 1998...

Glenn sat in the last row, while Sharon sat up front. Glenn began waiting for Sharon after class. They began studying together, having dinner together, going to the beach, roller blading...all in between study sessions. Both are huge Gator fans from UF, they found out they had a lot of things in common, including studying while listening to classical music. But their study habits were different. Sharon was compulsive: creating outlines for each class and reading thousands of flash cards while Glenn was more easygoing. He was not shy about using her outlines, however, which resulted in better grades for him. They were active in JLSA, ILSA and International Moot Court, where they traveled to competitions together. They both passed the Bar Exam, and got engaged in 1998 at Disney World when Glenn orchestrated a romantic and elaborate proposal at the Castle, complete with fireworks! They married in 1999, have four sons, including twins. Glenn is a shareholder at Gray Robinson. Taking that civil procedure class again turned out to be a pretty good thing after all! Scroll down for photos.

