Jess Hatfield Joins Eaton & Berube Insurance as Assistant Account Manager

Nashua, N.H. – Eaton & Berube Insurance Agency, LLC, of Nashua, N.H., announced today the hire of Jess Hatfield as an assistant account manager. Experienced in both personal and commercial insurance, Hatfield holds a property and casualty insurance producer license as well as the Accredited Customer Service Representative designation. Prior to joining Eaton & Berube, she worked as the personal lines manager at an independent insurance agency in Southern New Hampshire.

Before beginning a career in insurance, Hatfield obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree from Keene State College in 2010.

“We are thrilled that Jess [Hatfield] has joined our agency,” said Eaton & Berube President Marc R. Berube. “She will be a valuable asset to both our personal and commercial lines departments, and will help us uphold the superior level of customer service we pride ourselves on providing.”

Hatfield currently resides in her hometown of Milford, N.H.
