Southern New Hampshire Health System Promotes Two Finance Leaders
--Appointments Follow Announcement of New CEO--

(Nashua, NH) February 17, 2016 -- Southern New Hampshire Health (SNHH), today announced two new promotions in advance of the retirement of Thomas E. Wilhelmsen Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer, on June 30, 2016. Paul Trainor will assume the role of Senior Vice President of Finance and Treasurer, a role currently filled by Michael S. Rose, recently named as President and CEO. In addition, Kathy Bellamare, Vice President of Finance/Treasurer for Foundation Medical Partners will assume an expanded role as Vice President of Finance for the system.

"Both individuals have demonstrated strong leadership skills and the ability to collaboratively assure our organization's continued fiscal stability, says Rose. "In his eight years with Southern New Hampshire Health, Paul has effectively managed complex and challenging responsibilities ranging from budget management to the deployment of new systems to assure superior patient service in our business office, and this experience will serve him well as he assumes a new level of executive leadership."

With more than 20 years of health care finance experience, Trainor has served as Vice President of Finance for Southern New Hampshire Medical Center and Controller for the Health System since 2007. Prior to joining SNHH, Paul served in various finance roles at Optima Health, Elliot Hospital, and Catholic Medical Center. Paul holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Bentley College and a Masters of Healthcare Management from New England College.

Bellamare's expanded responsibilities will include accounting and reporting as SNHH continues to evolve operational and fiscal initiatives that assure system integration and efficiency in a dynamic health care market.

"Kathy, while a newer member of our team, has demonstrated a keen understanding of the nuances and complexities of health care finance as it relates to both our providers and other system partners," says Susan DeSocio, President and CEO of Foundation Medical Partners. "Her collaborative style of management and disciplined approach to fiscal oversight will serve us well as our System continues to grow and expand with new and evolving partnerships in the communities we serve.”

Having joined Foundation Medical Partners in July, 2015, Kathy is a Certified Public Accountant, with more than 30 years of health care finance and audit experience, including extensive public accounting experience with one of the largest international accounting firms, Ernst & Young. Kathy received her Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Bryant University.
