Program for Continuing Education in Social Work

Workshop Objective
Brad Hyde, MSW

Social Work Practice Ethics in Death and Dying

1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Friday, November 13, 2015

Issues surrounding end of life care are incredibly emotional, while the decisions confronting patients and their families are becoming more and more complex. The workshop will focus on common approaches and ethical challenges to end of life care, effective prevention and management of end of life conflicts, and prevalent topics confronting social workers and health care providers, including euthanasia and physician assisted suicide.

CEU’s Level 1: You will receive three Continuing Education credits for attending this event.

Location: The University of Oklahoma, Anne and Henry Zarrow School of Social Work in the room 250, Norman, Oklahoma

Cost: Professionals $30.00 and a special rate of $10.00 for Students.

Click Here to Register
Program for Continuing Education
Brad Hyde, MSW

Social Work Practice Ethics in Death and Dying

1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Friday, November 13, 2015

Brad graduated from the University of Oklahoma, School of Social Work with an MSW in 2011. Currently he is employed at Heartland Hospice of Norman. He has extensive experience working with terminally ill patients and their families in clinical settings. Prior to working at Heartland Hospice, he worked in the Oncology Department of St. Anthony Hospital in Oklahoma City.

CEU's Level 1: You will receive three Continuing Education credits for attending this event.

Location: The University of Oklahoma, Anne and Henry Zarrow School of Social Work in the room 250, Norman, Oklahoma

Cost: Professionals $30.00 and a special rate of $10.00 for Students

Click Here to Register