

Training Subcommittee Update, May 2015

By Ross Lampert

If you've been providing feedback to the Subcommittee via the survey questions at the end of each training module, thank you! We're getting some very important and useful information that way. "Keep those cards and letters coming!"

The subcommittee has been busy. This month you should see several new modules added to the Training Modules box on the Field Leaders page:

- Part 4 of the series on recruiting new members;
- At least one module on how to establish or maintain your non-profit status with your state, if the state requires you to do so;
- The next installment in the overview of AFA;
- A module on what makes an effective chapter web site—and what doesn't; and
- The next one in the series on recruiting and retaining chapter leaders.

Meanwhile, work continues on a tool that will help you determine which modules you should view in any given month, or over the course of the whole year, depending on your position at the chapter, state, or region level. There's A LOT you need to know to be an effective chapter, state, or region leader and this is part of our effort to make it easy for you to get the training you need when you need it. If you've got an idea on how we can do that, or do it better, don't keep it a secret! We haven't cornered the market on good ideas.
