The focus of this session is to help you avoid costly mistakes during change so you can achieve the ROI you seek when you initiate new projects. Dr. Jim Bohn has a unique blend of hands-on, in-the-trenches experience in addition to a rich pedigree of research from his Ph.D. studies.

As a leader, Dr. Bohn has personally led significant change management projects including IT implementations, mergers and reorganizations. As an educator, Jim has taught Organizational Development at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Lubar School of Business, Business Ethics and Strategy at Concordia University, and currently is teaching as an adjunct at Marquette University.

This event is presented by The Business Journal. Please contact their Audience Development Director, Sandy Wysocki, with any questions related to the program - 414.908.0561.
