

WINTER/SPRING 2016

Professional Development for Community Agencies

Volunteer Center offers professional & personal development seminars for people who serve the community.

Light refreshments provided
$10 donation suggested

All seminars held at 885 Badger Circle, Grafton
4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Volunteer Center
of Ozaukee County
262-377-1616
vc@volunteerozaukee.org
volunteerozaukee.org

Bringing Order out of Chaos

Feb. 10

It's that moment you've been waiting for. You're the one they're counting on to make this ... project ... team ... organization ... work. This is your chance to make a reputation. This is where leadership begins.

Presenter: James G. Bohn, PhD., Architect of Change

Board Development

Mar. 29

Rob Meiskens returns to continue the discussion on board development, board and ED relationship building and how to successfully collaborate to lead your organization into the future.

Presenter: Rob Meiskens, Forward Steps,
Executive Director of Nonprofit Center of Milwaukee

Round Pegs: Turning Dreams into Reality

Apr. 19

We believe: Dreamers start a renaissance; change is good, dare we say, even fun; in challenging the status quo and thinking differently

Presenter: George Coulter, Round Pegs

Professional Development

May 17

Mark King will be returning this spring. You will leave his seminar with the insights & tools necessary to make the changes/decisions for the next steps in your professional & personal growth.

Presenter: Mark King, Outward Focus

Smart Reader for Nonprofits

June 14

Increase your agency's exposure and learn how to search for potential donors using the Milwaukee Business Journal. Executive Directors and Fund Development professionals will benefit from this seminar.

Presenter: Jenny Roanhouse, Milwaukee Business Journal

Fundraising 303

TBA

Will Martin will continue to share his experience & wealth of knowledge on fundraising for boards, executive directors & staff.

Presenter: William Martin, Jericho Resources, Association of Fundraising Professionals