The Chur- ch's last - ing pa - ra - dox, our chal - lenge ev - 'ry day—
The sto - ry of God's life with us in Sac - ra - ment and Word,
As stew - ards of the My - ster - y our hold will not be tight,
The task in - vig - or - ates the soul and fo - cus - es the day—to keep and to com - mu - ni - cate the nar - ra - tive of faith...

the ma - ny treas - ures hand - ed down and faith - ful - ly pre - served.
a dust - y vault, a heav - y lid will on - ly block its light.
to guard the gra - cious gifts of God while giv - ing them a - way.

A period of silence follows the Homily.Then we stand and sing a metrical setting of the Nicene Creed:

A metrical setting of the Nicene Creed

Nettleton

We be-lieve in God the Fa-ther, God al - migh - ty, by whose plan Christ, who on the cross for-sak-en, like a lamb to slaugh-ter led,
 We be-lieve in God the Spi-rit; in one Church, be - low, a - bove:

earth and heav-en sprang to be - ing, all cre - at - ed things be - gan.
 suf-fered un - der Pon - tius Pi - late, he de - scend - ed to the dead.
 saints of God in one com - mu - nion, one in ho - li - ness and love.

We be - lieve in Christ the Sav-ior, Son of God in hu - man frame,
 We be - lieve in Je - sus ris - en, heav - en's king to rule and reign,
 So by faith, our sins for - giv - en, Christ our Sav-ior, Lord and friend, vir - gin - born, the child of Ma - ry up - on whom the Spi - rit came.

 to the Fa - ther's side as - cend - ed till as judge he comes a - gain.
 we shall rise with him in glo - ry to the life that knows no end.

Prayers of the People*Adapted from Prayers of the People Form II BCP p. 385*

Please offer your prayers after each petition, either silently or aloud.

I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for our Bishops Alan and Gayle; for St. John's Church; and for all ministers and people.

Pray for the Church.

I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace.

I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison. Pray for those in any need or trouble.

I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of God. Pray that they may find and be found by God.

I ask your prayers for the departed especially those we name silently or aloud. Pray for those who have died.

I ask your prayers and thanksgivings for all other causes that you wish to offer to God.

Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored, especially the Ever-blessed Virgin Mary, Saint John, apostle and evangelist, and all the saints. Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins. Silence may be kept.

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father;
in your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone;
and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant concludes with an absolution or a suitable Collect.

The Peace is then exchanged

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

We greet each other in the name of Christ.

At the Offertory: Hymn 436

Truro

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A, Book of Common Prayer p. 361

Celebrant: People:

The Lord be with you. And al-so with you.

Celebrant: People:

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant:

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People:

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. —here the proper preface is sung— Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus: The Sewanee Service

Malcolm Archer (b. 1952)

Introduction

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the name of the Lord.
 Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

At the acclamation in the eucharistic prayer:

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

At the conclusion of the eucharistic prayer

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise for ever and ever.

A-men.

The Lord's Prayer S148 Ambrosian Chant

arr. Mason Martens

Our Fa-ther in hea-ven, hal-low-ed be your name, your King-dom come, your will be done, on earth as in hea-ven. Give us to-day our dai-ly bread. For-give us our sins, as we for-give those who sin a-gainst us. Save us from the time of tri-al, and de-liv-er us from e-vil.
 For the king-dom, the power and the glo-ry are yours. Now and for ev-er. A - men RECEIVING COMMUNION: The altar in our church belongs to God. All are welcome and encouraged to come forward during the distribution of Holy Communion.

To receive communion, stand or kneel at the rail, stand against the plaster wall inside the rail, or notify an usher that you need to have communion brought to you at your seat. After you receive communion at (or inside) the rail, please remain in place until the chalice says "Go in peace." The response after receiving each kind (bread and wine) is "Amen," or you may remain silent. If you wish to receive a blessing instead of communion, please cross your arms over your chest before the Bread comes by.

We do not practice "intinction," that is, dipping bread in wine. If you do not wish to drink from the chalice, please cross your arms over your chest so the chalice knows this. Receiving the Sacrament in either kind alone constitutes a full and valid Communion.

Gluten-free wafers are available; simply ask the person distributing the Bread.

Saint John's is committed to achieving the full inclusion of all people in Christ's Body, the Church. Please feel free to ask the rector if you have any questions.

Please join in singing the Communion music overleaf:

Communion Hymn 333, please join in singing:

Now

Now the si - lence now the peace, now the em - pty hands up - lift - ed, now the kneel - ing now the plea, now the Fa - ther's arms in wel - come,
 now the hear - ing now the power, now the ves - sel brimmed for pour - ing, now the Bo - dy now the Blood, now the joy - ful cel - e - bra - tion,
 Now the wed - ding now the songs, now the heart for - giv - en leap - ing, now the Spi - rit's vis - i - ta - tion, now the Son's e - pi - pha - ny, now the Fa - ther's bless - ing, now, now, now.

Communion Hymn 656

Franconia

After all have received, a period of silence and reflection precedes the Post-Communion rite.

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
 you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
 in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
 Send us now into the world in peace,
 and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
 with gladness and singleness of heart;
 through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant

The Lord be with you

People

And also with you.

The Priest blesses the people. The people say: Amen.

At the procession: Hymn 782 in Wonder, Love & Praise

Abbot's Leigh

Dismissal: response: Thanks be to God.
