

Christine Laurens – Chief Financial Officer & Partner, A.T. Kearney

Christine is the Chief Financial Officer and a partner with A.T. Kearney. She joined A.T. Kearney in 2002 and held various roles within the finance function including Finance Director for Europe, Middle East and Africa, Southwest Europe Finance Director and France Finance and Administration Director and general counsel. She is now based in Chicago. As a member of the Senior Leadership Team she has responsibility over the traditional finance disciplines (accounting, treasury, tax, financial planning and analysis) as well as strategic planning and global real estate.

Before joining A.T. Kearney she was a CFO with a professional service listed company, a Managing Director of a start-up in the web industry and an audit manager with a big 4.

She earned a Master in Management from HEC Paris School of management, a CEMS degree HEC-ESADE Barcelona and is a certified public accountant.

She was named A.T. Kearney Mother of the Year by Working Mother magazine in 2015