

IEEE

UCLA

&

PRESENT

claudio shannon

1916 - 2016

May 7, 2016

<http://www.ee.ucla.edu/shannon-centennial/>

Includes interactions with UCLA Professors and Students, Guided Tours and Demonstrations.

YOU ARE INVITED TO THE
SHANNON CENTENARY

May 7, 2016

Collins Conference Room

James West Alumni Center, UCLA

The UCLA Shannon centennial celebration is open to the public.
Middle and high school students are especially welcome.

Interactions

(9:00 – 10:30 AM , 1:00 – 2:30 PM)

with UCLA professors, graduate and undergraduate engineering students, explaining the principles of modern information systems.

Guided Tours

(11:30 AM – 12:00 PM , 3:30 – 4:30 PM)

of the engineering school with stops at internet museum and student design centers.

Demonstrations

(10:30 – 11:30 AM , 2:30 – 3:30 PM)

of three UCLA student design projects:

NATCAR: a small-scale autonomous vehicle.

MICROMOUSE: autonomous robots navigating a maze.

3D-Printing.

To receive a free 3D printed souvenir, RSVP by April 29 at <http://goo.gl/q1w6vX>

This event is FREE (Lunch and Parking not provided).

For more details, (Map & Parking), please visit

<http://www.ee.ucla.edu/shannon-centennial/>