

Alaska Agriculture in the Classroom Educator Institute 2015

Course Dates: Tuesday, July 28th — Friday July 31st, 2015 (8am –5pm daily)

Course Description: This course is an introduction to the many resources available through the Alaska Ag in the Classroom program, and interdisciplinary methods, including STEM, to teach principles of agriculture. A variety of curricula will be presented and field trips provide hands-on opportunities.

Location: Matanuska Experiment Farm and Spring Creek Farm in Palmer, Alaska

Cost: $190

Instructors: Marilyn Krause, Melissa Sikes
Lee Hecimovich and Megan Talley

Course Title: Enhancing Agriculture Literacy for Regular Education, Gifted and Special Education Teachers

Course #'s: CRN 52305 (ED) or CRN 52307 (NRM) for 1 credit
CRN 52308 (ED) or CRN 52310 (NRM) for 2 credits.

Register with UAF online at <https://www.uaf.edu/summer/registration>
Or contact fairbanksswcd@gmail.com for a registration form.

For more information, email Marilyn Krause at marilyn.krause@k12northstar.org or Melissa at fairbanksswcd@gmail.com

Sponsored by the Fairbanks Soil and Water Conservation District, UAF School of Natural Resources and Extension, Alaska Pacific University, Alaska Farm Bureau, and the Alaska Association of Conservation Districts with assistance from The National Ag in the Classroom Consortium, and the USDA.

