

Co-Op Student of the Year Award

Co-Op students help employers in many ways. They can help reduce employee overload, offer new perspectives and provide an introduction to potential new hires. Co-Op students in turn gain valuable experience putting their classroom learning to the test in real-world environments while completing their academic studies. Attractions Ontario is proud to recognize these students with their annual Co-Op Student of the Year Award.

Attractions Ontario would like to recognize those students that help make our members successful.
