

PACE Program Option

This is a program where the end user works with a program administrator and adds the cost plus interest to their property taxes for up to 25 years. The end user then maintains all rebates and incentives. In most instances the customer will be cash positive the entire length of the term.