

“God is not afraid of new things! That is why he is continually surprising us, opening our hearts and guiding us in unexpected ways.”
 — Pope Francis

What is City of Saints?

A Catholic teen conference hosted by Archbishop Jose Gomez and the Youth Ministry Division in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. This event is a wonderful and local opportunity for young people to deepen their relationship with Jesus. The conference will feature dynamic speakers, liturgical experiences, music, and more, set in an atmosphere where teens can learn about and experience the Eucharist and the beauty of the Catholic faith with its rich symbols and traditions.

Why City of Saints?

The theme “City of Saints” reminds us that we live in a city named after saints, not only Los Angeles, (named for Our Lady, of course) but also Santa Monica, San Pedro, San Fernando, Santa Barbara, etc. We remember that all teens are called to be saints in our cities. This conference will help these young people express this sainthood in their everyday lives.

Where is it? We will be at UCLA University. We will be staying in the dorms.

How much will it cost?

- ◆ The cost will be $195 per participant (chaperones and teens). The fee will include accommodations and meals.
- ◆ There will be an additional $15 for tshirts and $25 for transportation—Total cost is $235.
- ◆ We would need a deposit of $50 by March 15th to hold your spot.

We will also need chaperones.

Yes, we must also pay the same fees...But it is WELL worth it!!!
