

Do you sometimes feel like your artistic passion is stifled with your typical Design Job? Want a Fresh Marketing opportunity?

Housetrends® Magazine is happy to announce a partnership with the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID) Ohio North Chapter and The 78th Street Studios in Cleveland to be the presenting sponsor of the first ever Art, Wine and Design Show.

This collaborative event is designed (pun intended) to foster new working relationships between local interior design professionals and local artists by creating unique design vignettes within the studios on the first floor utilizing the designers keen eye and their partnered artists' works of art as their inspiration.

The event will take place at 78th Street Studios, 1300 West 78th Street in Cleveland, just off of Detroit Avenue and just west of the Gordon Square Arts District. The date of the main event is Saturday, September 19th from 10:00AM until 9:00PM. It will piggy back on that 78th Third Friday which brings an established audience as well.

More Info to follow, however this Friday February the 20th is Third Friday. If you've never been or looking for a great Friday Date night idea, check it out. It will be inspirational. <http://www.78thstreetstudios.com/about>

September 19, 2015